

Contents

Foreword .....	III
Preface .....	V
Acknowledgements .....	VII
Acronyms and abbreviations .....	XVI
Chapter 1: Introduction to Political Finance .....	1
Why is political finance important? .....	1
Political finance regulations .....	3
Enforcement .....	4
Internal party finance behaviour .....	4
About the handbook .....	6
Introduction to the regional chapters .....	8
References .....	9
Notes .....	9
Chapter 2: Getting the Political Finance System Right .....	12
Introduction .....	13
The best way to reform political finance regulations .....	13
Political goals .....	16
Context .....	18
Ways of regulating political finance .....	21
Donation bans and limits .....	21
Public funding .....	22
Spending bans and limits .....	26
Financial reporting .....	28
Enforcing political finance regulations .....	30
References .....	33
Notes .....	33
Regional Studies of Political Finance: Regulatory Frameworks and Political Realities .....	38
Chapter 3: Africa .....	39
Introduction to problems in African political finance .....	39
Access to funds for all relevant actors .....	39
Abuse of state resources .....	40
Clientelism .....	40
Vote buying .....	40
Illicit funding .....	40
Dependency on foreign funds .....	41
The cash nature of African economies .....	41
An overview of political finance regulations in Africa .....	41
Sources of income for political parties and candidates .....	42
Contribution bans .....	42
Contribution limits .....	43
Sources of private income .....	44
Public funding .....	49
Abuse of state resources .....	54

Spending by political parties and candidates .....	56
Spending limits .....	56
Actual spending .....	56
Vote buying .....	57
The relation between political party and candidate spending .....	58
Enforcement of political finance regulations .....	59
Disclosure requirements .....	59
Scrutiny and enforcement .....	60
Sanctions .....	61
The role of civil society and the media .....	62
Conclusions .....	62
Recommendations .....	65
Policy makers .....	65
Monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	65
Ruling parties .....	66
Opposition parties .....	66
Civil society .....	66
Media actors .....	67
International actors .....	67
References .....	67
Notes .....	75

Chapter 4: Asia .....	82
Introduction .....	83
Problems in Asian political finance .....	85
Corruption, clientelism and clans .....	85
Linkages between political parties, voters and business .....	85
Ineffective implementation .....	86
Illicit funding .....	87
Lack of resources for opposition parties and female candidates .....	87
Abuse of state resources .....	88
Vote buying .....	88
Regional initiatives to regulate political finance .....	88
Sources of income for political parties and candidates .....	89
Contribution bans .....	89
Contribution limits .....	91
Private sources of income .....	91
Public funding .....	96
Abuse of state resources .....	100
Political funding and female representation .....	100
Spending by political parties and candidates .....	101
Spending limits .....	101
Actual spending .....	102
Vote buying .....	103
Enforcement of political finance regulations .....	104
Disclosure requirements .....	104
Scrutiny and enforcement .....	105
Sanctions .....	107

Civil society and the media .....	108
Conclusions .....	109
Recommendations .....	111
Policy makers .....	111
Monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	112
Ruling parties .....	112
Opposition parties .....	113
Civil society .....	113
Media actors .....	114
International actors .....	114
References.....	115
Notes.....	123
Chapter 5: Latin America .....	128
Introduction .....	129
Problems of political finance in Latin America .....	130
Lack of transparency and reliable information .....	130
Poorly conceptualized regulations .....	131
Infiltration of illicit financing .....	131
Absence of strong monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	132
Sources of income for political parties and candidates .....	132
Contribution bans .....	132
Private sources of income .....	134
Limits on contributions .....	139
Public financing .....	140
Abuse of government resources .....	145
Spending by political parties and candidates .....	146
Spending limits .....	146
Actual expenditures.....	146
Vote buying .....	147
Compliance with political finance regulations .....	148
Transparency .....	148
Oversight and compliance .....	150
Sanctions .....	151
Conclusions .....	151
Recommendations .....	153
Policy makers .....	154
Monitoring and enforcement agencies.....	155
Civil society .....	156
Media actors.....	156
International actors .....	157
References.....	159
Notes.....	167
Chapter 6: Eastern, Central and South-eastern Europe and Central Asia .....	172
Introduction .....	173
Regional problems with money in politics .....	174
Abuse of state resources .....	174

State control over the political arena .....	174
Private-sector kickbacks and buying government favours .....	175
Illegal and illicit funding .....	176
Dodging rules and avoiding transparency .....	176
Overview of political finance regulations .....	176
Sources of income for political parties and candidates .....	178
Contribution bans .....	178
Contribution limits .....	179
Sources of private income .....	180
Illicit funding .....	182
Public funding .....	183
The abuse of state resources .....	185
Spending by political parties and candidates .....	187
Spending limits .....	187
Actual spending .....	188
Third-party spending .....	189
Enforcement of political finance regulations .....	190
The role of civil society organizations and the media .....	193
The role of civil society organizations .....	193
The role of the media .....	193
Conclusions .....	194
Recommendations .....	195
Policy makers .....	195
Monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	196
Political parties and politicians .....	196
Civil society and media actors .....	196
International actors .....	196
References .....	197
Notes .....	202

Chapter 7: Northern, Western and Southern Europe .....	206
Introduction .....	207
Challenges and problems of political finance in Northern, Western and Southern Europe .....	208
Political corruption .....	208
Weak enforcement .....	209
Parties' state dependency .....	209
Gender inequality .....	210
Overview of political finance regulations .....	210
The growing regulation of political finance .....	210
Traditions of political finance regulation .....	212
Recent trends of political finance reform: toward harmonization? .....	212
Sources of income of political parties and candidates .....	212
Private funding of political parties .....	213
Public funding of political parties .....	220
Political funding and women's representation .....	226
Regulation of spending by political parties and candidates .....	228
Levels and types of spending .....	230

Reporting, external oversight and enforcement of political finance regulations .....	231
Reporting requirements .....	231
Monitoring authorities .....	233
Sanctions for political finance violations .....	235
The civic watchdogs: civil society and the media .....	235
Conclusions .....	236
Recommendations .....	238
Policy makers .....	238
Monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	239
Political parties and politicians .....	240
Media actors .....	240
References .....	241
Notes .....	247

Chapter 8: The Established Anglophone Democracies .....	254
Introduction .....	255
Current challenges of political finance .....	256
Unequal access to resources .....	256
‘Free speech’ vs ‘fair elections’ .....	257
Abuse of state resources .....	258
Dependence on corporate and trade union contributions .....	259
Third-party campaigning .....	259
Overview of political finance regulation .....	260
Introduction of relevant regulation .....	260
Sources of income for political parties and candidates .....	262
Contribution bans .....	262
Contribution limits .....	263
Sources of private funding .....	264
Public funding .....	269
Spending by political parties and candidates .....	273
Spending limits .....	273
Actual spending .....	274
Enforcement of political finance regulation .....	277
Monitoring agency .....	277
Reporting requirements .....	278
Disclosure requirements .....	278
Scrutiny and enforcement .....	279
The role of civil society and the media .....	280
Conclusions .....	281
Common features .....	281
Issues for further consideration .....	282
Recommendations .....	284
References .....	287
Notes .....	292

Chapter 9: Women in Politics: Financing for Gender Equality .....	300
Introduction .....	301
Normative framework on political participation .....	302
Political finance: key issues .....	303
Systemic barriers .....	303
Type of campaign .....	305
Barriers to fundraising .....	307
Measures to level the field .....	308
Political finance legislation .....	309
Legislation targeting the campaign period (gender-neutral) .....	310
Public funding to enforce quota provisions and candidate-nomination incentives .....	316
Non-legislated initiatives .....	326
Political party initiatives .....	326
Emily's List .....	328
The WISH List .....	329
EMILY's List Australia .....	330
Civil society and other initiatives .....	330
Conclusion .....	333
Recommendations .....	334
Legislators .....	334
Political finance regulatory bodies .....	334
Political parties .....	335
Media actors .....	335
Civil society .....	335
International actors .....	335
References .....	336
Notes .....	340
Chapter 10: Conclusions .....	344
Money and politics: a contextual overview .....	345
Global challenges .....	346
High costs .....	346
Lack of grass-roots support .....	347
Illicit funding and criminal sources .....	347
Business and politics .....	348
Unequal access to funds .....	348
Abuse of state resources .....	349
Lack of enforcement .....	349
Self-regulation of parties and politicians .....	351
Global regulatory trends .....	352
Growing (and more specific) legislation .....	352
Public funding .....	353
Gender and public funding .....	354
Recommendations .....	355
Policy makers .....	356
Monitoring and enforcement agencies .....	357
Political parties and politicians .....	359
Media actors .....	360
Civil society .....	360

International actors .....	361
Main recommendations .....	362
References .....	364
Notes .....	364

Annexes

Annex I: Comparative tables .....	367
Annex II: Glossary .....	392
Annex III: About the authors .....	396
Annex IV: International dollars (I$) .....	400
Annex V: About International IDEA .....	402

Index .....	403
--------------------	-----

Tables

1.1. Levels of political finance regulation per country, by region .....	3
2.1. The rationale behind different types of donation bans .....	21
2.2. The rationale and considerations regarding direct public funding .....	25
2.3. The rationale and considerations regarding spending limits .....	28
2.4. The rationale and considerations regarding financial reporting requirements .....	29
3.1. Amounts of direct public funding distributed in ten African countries .....	50
4.1. Subsidies provided to political parties in South Korea in 2012 .....	97
5.1. Party dependency on public funding in Latin America, by country .....	140
7.1. Membership fees as a percentage of total party income in Northern, Western and Southern Europe, 1950–90 .....	214
7.2. Reported donations to political parties in Luxembourg, 2009–11 .....	215
7.3. Reported donations to the Dutch Social Democratic Party, 2010–12 .....	216
7.4. Annual limits on contributions to political parties in Northern, Western and Southern Europe .....	220
7.5. The costs of French presidential elections, 1981–2002 .....	230
8.1. Subsidy levels in anglophone democracies .....	271
8.2. Spending limits for parties and candidates (in I$) .....	274
8.3. Campaign spending in US federal elections since 2000 .....	276
9.1. Political funding regulations and gender considerations .....	310
9.2. Gendered impacts of finance legislation .....	315
9.3. Enforcement of electoral quotas through public funding .....	319
9.4. Public funding disbursement relative to number of women candidates .....	321
9.5. Legislation targeting gender-equality measures and earmarking .....	325

Figures

2.1. Building blocks for political finance reform .....	14
2.2. Examples of considerations for political goals .....	17
2.3. The provision of direct public funding for political parties .....	23
2.4. Spending limits for candidates .....	27
2.5. Is it specified that a particular institution(s) is responsible for examining financial reports and/or investigating violations? .....	31
3.1. African countries with bans on corporate donations and donations from foreign interests to political parties .....	43

3.2. Free or subsidized access to media for political parties in Africa .....	53
4.1. Asian countries where tax relief is provided to parties as a type of indirect public funding .....	99
5.1. The percentage of states in Latin America that ban anonymous donations to political parties and candidates .....	134
5.2. Countries in Latin America that require periodic reporting of party financing .....	148
6.1. Limits on the amount donors can contribute to candidates in Eastern, Central and South-eastern Europe and Central Asia .....	180
6.2. Institutions responsible for examining financial reports and/or investigating violations in Eastern, Central and South-eastern Europe and Central Asia .....	192
7.1. Year of introduction of political finance laws for parties and candidates in Northern, Western and Southern Europe .....	211
7.2. Infractions related to annual private donations in Portugal, 1994–2007 .....	219
7.3. Northern, Western and Southern European countries that offer direct public funding for political parties .....	221
7.4. The introduction of direct public funding of political parties in Northern, Western and Southern Europe .....	222
7.5. The dependency of political parties in Northern, Western and Southern Europe on state funding .....	224
7.6. Northern, Western and Southern European countries that require political party reports to be made available to the public .....	232
8.1. Maximum amounts for legally anonymous contributions in anglophone countries (in I$) .....	263
9.1. Countries that have adopted political finance reforms that directly target gender equality .....	317

Boxes

2.1. Common challenges in political finance .....	20
4.1. Political party income in India .....	92
4.2. Japan—decreasing donations .....	93
6.1. The Lazarenko scandal .....	176
9.1. Costa Rica financing for gender equality .....	323
9.2. El Salvador’s FMLN .....	327
9.3. EMILY’S List .....	329