

LABOR IN THE GLOBAL DIGITAL ECONOMY

The Cybertariat Comes of Age

by URSULA HUWS

MONTHLY REVIEW PRESS
New York

Contents

Introduction / 7

1. WHAT WILL WE DO? / 27

The Destruction of Occupational Identities in the Knowledge-Based Economy

2. FIXED, FOOTLOOSE, OR FRACTURED / 47

Work, Identity, and the Spatial Division of Labor in the Twenty-First-Century City

3. BEGGING AND BRAGGING / 61

The Self and the Commodification of Intellectual Activity

4 . THE GLOBALIZATION OF LABOR AND THE ROLE
OF NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS / 85

Toward a Conceptual Framework

5. EXPRESSION AND EXPROPRIATION / 101

The Dialectics of Autonomy and Control in Creative Labor

6. CRISIS AS CAPITALIST OPPORTUNITY / 127

The New Accumulation through Public Service Commodification

7. THE UNDERPINNINGS OF CLASS IN THE DIGITAL AGE / 149

Living, Labor, and Value

Notes / 183

Index / 203