

The Corbyn Effect

Edited by Mark Perryman

Lawrence & Wishart
London 2017

Contents

Paul Mason	Foreword	ix
Introduction	The Corbyn Effect	1
Keynote Essay
Mark Perryman	The Great Moving Left Show	5
Understanding Corbynism
Jeremy Gilbert	The Absolute Corbyn	35
Andrew Gamble	The Resistible Rise of Theresa May	54
Jessica Garland	Labour's New Model Party	68
Gerry Hassan	The Coming of Caledonian Corbynism	81
The Framing of Corbynism
Des Freedman	Corbyn Framed and Unframed	96
Hilary Wainwright	Mind the Labour Gap	112
Eliane Glaser	The Authenticity of Hope	125
Monique Charles	Generation Grime	138
The Limits of Corbynism
Sue Goss	A Progressive Majority	150
Phil Burton-Cartledge	Class Politics and the Revenge of the Future	162
Maya Goodfellow	No More Racing to the Bottom	177
Marina Prentoulis	Lessons from Syriza	190
The Potential of Corbynism
Jo Littler	More for the Many, Less for the Few	202
James Doran	An Antidote to Pasokification	214
Jack Kellam	The Perils of Being Popular	227
Paula Surridge	Marginal Gains	239

Preparing for Power

Labour's Battleground Seats: A Smart Campaign Guide 252

Corbyn's Effects, Further Reading and Other Resources of Hope 257

Afterwords

Notes on Contributors 263

Acknowledgements 267

Index 271