Justice for Colombia

PSI General Secretary Peter Waldorff visited Colombia 20-24 July 2010, as part of a mission arranged by "Justice for Colombia", an organisation set up by several British trade unions, NGOs and members of the European Parliament.

The purpose of the mission was to learn more about the current situation and to promote trade union rights, respect for the life and physical safety of trade unionists, and respect for human rights in Colombia.

Help Colombian affiliates in their struggle against water privatisation!

One of PSI's affiliates in Colombia, SINTRACUAVALLE, is raising the alarm about the planned privatisation of the commercial sector of the public water company Acuavalle. Their concern is based on the splitting of Acuavalle's components into public and private entities, which will likely result in higher costs to consumers.

Meryem has been released!

We are pleased to announce that Meryem Özsögüt has been released from prison in Turkey! In her message, Meryem thanks affiliates and PSI for the solidarity that gave her hope while she was in prison and that has surely contributed to her release at this point. PSI affiliates are asked to continue to demand the guarantee of justice and freedom for Meryem, and fellow trade unionists who are still being held in Turkish prisons.
