PSI World News

PUBLIC SERVICES INTERNATIONAL | February 2011

8 March 2011 - Defending and advancing public services for equality and peace

This year's International Women's Day celebrations by Public Services International members are marked by a wide-reaching sense of determination to make swift changes that better the world for women and their families. From Cairo, Egypt to Wisconsin, USA, women and men are on the move, demanding respect for basic rights and freedoms: the right to freedom of expression, the right to join a union, the right to collective bargaining, the right to live in dignity.

United Nations Commission on the Status of Women

An eighty-strong delegation of trade union women participated in the 55th Session of the UN Commission on the Status of Women in New York, from 22 February to 4 March, 2011. The main theme was women and girls' access to education and training, particularly in science & technology, and linkages with employment and decent work.
