International military strikes in Syria would jeopardize options for peace

"We condemn any use of chemical weapons, particularly against innocent civilians, as has been reported in Syria. We also denounce any retaliatory military intervention which can only worsen the humanitarian situation."

Workers in Guatemala must be protected when they speak out

Public Services International led an international trade union delegation to Guatemala in August for a series of high-level meetings to urge the government to end impunity in the cases of assassinated trade unionists. More...
