Trade unions for climate action and clean energy

After attending the strategic discussion organised with Trade Unions for Energy Democracy on 20 September, PSI joined the climate march in the streets of New York. "We want change, we want action, and we want it now!" says Rosa Pavanelli, PSI General Secretary.

Opening trade agreements to public debate

At a meeting in Washington, D.C., 16-18 September, trade unionists from around the world discussed the best action to take against trade agreements that are being negotiated in secret. More

Taking action against Ebola

In countries affected by Ebola, the virus has already taken the lives of many health service workers. PSI is requesting affiliates to donate to the PSI Aid Fund in order to support our members and their families.
