

PSI at 104th International Labour Conference

Let us be bold in our ambitions and make the concrete difference the world is waiting for. It is time that the 99% of the world population, we all representing the real world of labour, have our voices heard and that the richest 1% pays its fair share.

Massive TISA leak highlights "madness of secrecy"

The largest ever leak of negotiating documents from the controversial Trade in Services Agreement (TISA) highlights the madness of secrecy and provides no comfort for users of public services. More

Public anger will grow if G20 leaders fail on tax

At a panel held in parallel with the Festival of Economics in Trento, Italy, Rosa Pavanelli, PSI General Secretary, responded to Independent Commission for Reform of International Corporate Taxation (ICRICT) findings. More
