

Public services welcome migrants and refugees, build resilience of communities

"The world today faces an escalation of human displacement, with millions of people forced to leave their homelands as a result of conflict, human rights violations, violence and climate disasters."

PSI statement on the Paris climate agreement

Public Services International applauds the Paris Agreement but corporate hypocrisy on climate must be revealed and resisted. More

Global supply chains and the public sector

The ratification and implementation of ILO core Conventions is a key element for credible policy on Global Supply Chains (GSC), according to an International Symposium organized by the ILO's Bureau for Workers Activities (ACTRAV) on 15-17 December. PSI General Secretary Rosa Pavanelli addressed the meeting on 15 December. More

Tunisian National Dialogue Quartet receives Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo

At a celebration in Oslo, Norway, on 10 December 2015, the Tunisian National Dialogue Quartet received the Nobel Peace Prize. More

TAKE ACTION

International Human Rights Day

International Anti-corruption Day

Korean workers' ongoing struggle for their rights

EVENTS

Young workers meet in Togo

PUBLICATIONS

The great climate change swindle

Video: PSI at COP21

More News

UNISON organises route of shame on Human Rights Day

The Arab world, a place of hope

Indian convention calls for defence of rights at WTO ministerial

Connect with us

Public Services International is a global trade union federation representing 20 million working women and men who deliver vital public services in 150 countries. PSI champions human rights, advocates for social justice and promotes universal access to quality public services. PSI works with the United Nations system and in partnership with labour, civil society and other organisations.

Contact: communications@world-psi.org

You received this email because at some point in the past you signed up to our mailing list.
If you want you can unsubscribe.