About CICP

The CICP is an independent, neutral, and non-partisan research institute based in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The Institute promotes both domestic and regional dialogue between government officials, national and international organizations, scholars, and the private sector on issues of peace, democracy, civil society, security, foreign policy, conflict resolution, economics and national development.

In this regard, the institute endeavors to:

- ✚ organize and sponsor forums, lectures, local, regional and international workshops and conference on various development and international issues;
- ✚ design and conduct trainings to civil servants and general public to build capacity in various topics especially in economic development and international cooperation.
- ✚ participate and share ideas in domestic, regional and international forums, workshops and conferences;
- ✚ promote peace and cooperation among Cambodians, as well as between Cambodians and others through regional and international dialogues; and
- ✚ conduct surveys and researches on various topics including socio-economic development, security and international relation as well as disseminate the resulting research findings.
