

THE WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF SOCIALIST AND LABOUR ORGANISATIONS.
(British Section).

3, Lincoln's Inn Fields,
London, W.C.

THE WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL.

The Women's International Council of Socialist and Labour Organisations (British Section) held a meeting at Chandos Hall on Saturday, for Socialist and industrial women to hear and discuss the report of the delegates to the recent International Conference of Socialist and Labour Women held at Berne at the end of March. Dr. Marion Phillips was in the chair, and she with Mrs. Salter, Miss Margaret Bondfield and Miss. Mary Longman gave reports of the Conference. After discussion the following resolution was adopted:--

That this meeting of representatives of the Independent Labour Party, British Socialist Party, Fabian Society, Women's Labour League, National Federation of Women Workers, Shop Assistants' Union, Domestic Workers' Union, National Union of Clerks, Amalgamated Union of Cooperative Employees, Women's Cooperative Guild, Railway Women's Guild, and the National Women's Council, Having heard the report of the delegates to the International Conference of Socialist Women held at Berne, endorses the action taken by the Conference, and pledges itself to further that action in this country.

At the close of proceedings it was agreed to ask the Women's International Council to arrange another meeting for further discussion at an early date.