

APPENDIX

Comment of the editors: The status of the following ‘Treaty on the Gulf of Guinea Commission’ is unclear. Judging from its language, it is a draft for debate from the late 1990s and not yet a final draft ready for adoption. However, this was the only draft we were able to receive and we therefore decided to nevertheless publish it in this early version to give the reader an impression of what is negotiated between the parties.

Treaty On The Gulf Of Guinea Commission

Article I Definitions

In this Treaty,

“Commission” means the “Gulf of Guinea Commission”;

“Council” means the Council of Minister of the Gulf of Guinea Commission;

“Minister” includes the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Other Ministers of the Parties, responsible for the activities within the scope of this Treaty;

“Senior Officials” include government officials of each Party designed as such, and accredited to the Commission.

Article II The Organization

An organization is hereby established (instituted) to be known as the “Gulf of Guinea Commission”, and hereinafter referred to as “the Commission”.

Article III Membership

Membership of the Commission shall be limited to sovereign States bordering the Gulf of Guinea.

Article IV Scope

(i) The Commission shall have within its purview the promotion of peace and security in the Gulf of Guinea, as well as the economic, social and environmental well being of its members;

(ii) The Commission shall regulate and harmonize the exploitation of the natural resources of the Gulf of Guinea, in particular, in such specific endeavours as fishing and oil exploration, and the exploitation of other resources yet to be tapped in the area;

(iii) With regard to sub-paragraph (ii) above, the Commission shall apply a collective approach that would enhance the common pooling of technological know-how for the development of the common heritage of the Gulf and reduce the costs of exploitation of all the resources.

Article V

Aims

The Commission shall be a forum for addressing problems affecting Member-states in the following areas:-

- (a) environmental pollution of their common maritime zone;
- (b) border issues vis-à-vis delimitation of maritime borders and other conflicts arising in the overlapping Exclusive Economic Zones (EEZ);
- (c) security matters such as issue of Joint Border Patrol, Immigration and similar matters;
- (d) co-ordination of fishing activities in the Gulf.

Article VI

Objectives

The objective of the Commission shall be:

- (a) to help achieve mutual confidence and trust amongst member-states;
- (b) to create an atmosphere in which mutually beneficial economic activities by citizens of member-states could be peacefully pursued;
- (c) to provide a framework for the monitoring and control of environmental degradation in the Gulf, as well as harmonization of the exploitation of natural resources in the overlapping areas of the EEZ, through the pooling of technological and infrastructural facilities and other cost-sharing strategies;
- (d) to co-ordinate and articulate common positions on issues of particular interests to the enhancement of peace and stability in the sub-region.

Article VII

Institutional Framework

The Commission shall be recognized as an international legal “persona”.

Article VIII

(i) For the purpose of achieving the aims and objectives laid down in Article V and VI above, the Commission shall encourage regular exchange of opinion (consultation) amongst the State Parties so as to facilitate concertation of views on various African and international issues aimed at better understanding, security and stability within the sub-region;

(ii) to this end, there shall be created, the assembly of Heads of States and Government, and the Council of Ministers, notably Ministers in charge of: Foreign Affairs, Economy, Hydrocarbons, Fishing resources, Mines, Environment.

Article IX

Assembly Of Heads Of State And Government

The assembly of Heads of State and Government of Parties to this Treaty shall be the governing and decision – making body of the Commission. It shall determine the objectives and principles governing programmes and activities to be carried out. A Summit Session shall be held once a year, in alphabetical rotation.

Article X

Council Of Ministers

The Council of Ministers shall meet at last once a year, to harmonise views on issues and programmes to be tackled before the assembly of Heads of State and Government.

Article XI

Protocols

Parties shall prepare and adopt additional protocols stipulating measures, procedures and standards for the purpose of clarifying and improving methods by which the provisions of this Treaty shall be implemented.

Article XII

Relationship With Other Organizations

With a view to achieving the aims and objectives of this Treaty, the Commission shall co-operate through all appropriate means with relevant sub-regional, regional and international organizations, as well as with any other concerned institution.

Article XIII

Settlement Of Disputes

The Parties shall endeavour to resolve any matter in dispute arising from the application or interpretation of this Treaty by negotiation, conciliation, arbitration or other peaceful means.

Article XIV

Agreement Concludes By State Parties With Non-Party States

Parties may conclude economic, technical or cultural Agreements with third Parties outside the Gulf of Guinea Commission, provided that such Agreements are not incompatible with the provisions of this Treaty. Copies of such Agreements shall be transmitted to the Executive Secretary who shall inform the Council thereof.

Article XV

Ratification, Acceptance, Approval Or Accession

This Treaty shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by States, which have signed it and shall remain open for accession by other States of the sub-region in accordance with their respective legislative procedures.

Article XVI

Depository Authority

The present Treaty and all instruments of Ratification, Acceptance, Approval or Accession will be deposited with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of.....
(or whoever is chosen as depository) who shall transmit certified copies of this Treaty to all Parties and notify them of the dates of deposit of each Instrument of Ratification, Acceptance, Approval or Accession.

Article XVII

The Depository Authority shall register this Treaty with the Organization of African Unity, the United Nations Organization and such other Organizations as the Council may determine.

Article XVIII
Entry Into Force, Amendment And Termination

- (i) This Treaty shall enter into force thirty (30) days following the deposit with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the ..... (or whoever is chosen) of the fourth Instrument of Ratification.
- (ii) For each of the States which ratifies, accepts, approves, or accedes after the entry into force, this Treaty shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the deposit by that State of its Instrument of Ratification, Acceptance, Approval or Accession.
- (iii) This Treaty may be amended by four of the Parties, and such amendment shall enter into force within thirty (30) days after its adoption. The text of such amendment shall be circulated to all Parties at least sixty (60) days before voting.
- (iv) This Treaty shall terminate by a vote of four of the Parties, ninety (90) days after such a vote is taken. Notice of such termination shall be circulated to all Parties through the Executive Secretary, ninety (90) days before voting, and may be withdrawn at any time before the vote is taken.
- (v) After the termination of this Treaty, its provisions shall continue to govern all existing and unexpired projects or [...non-readable in copy....] within its framework.

Article XIX

This Treaty is made in four original languages which are English, French, Spanish and Portuguese Languages, each text being equally authentic.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective governments for that purpose, have signed this Treaty.
